Children In Ranelagh Raise Another Huge Sum

Thank you so much for supporting us with Children in Need. This charity helps children in a wide variety of ways, even in our local area.

Alternatives Trust East is a Support service for refugee mothers and their children- this allows children to be more secure, safe from harm and have improved wellbeing. Children In Need have donated £96,294 to this special place.

Ranelagh was more than happy to dress up on dots and school council ensured that the children donated. We raised a whopping £250. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

Ranelagh's Royal Ball

On Tuesday, Key Stage 1 was awash with Queens, Kings and all kinds of royalty from around the world. The day ended with a grand ball in which children impressively danced Tudor style. The day involved crown-making; knighting ceremonies and the art of Tudor Dance. The royal banquet was held in Ranelagh's Dining Hall. This event is part of KS1's theme – Kings, Queens and the Terrible Tudors.
