We're going on a Theatre Visit...

On 11th December, Year 1 went through, over and around Stratford, they swished, they swashed and squelched to Stratford Circus to watch the book they loved in Reception - We're Going On a Bear Hunt.

"It was fab 2 the puppets were amazing" said Lily Rose. The Angel theatre company used puppets and performers to retell the tale in music and song.

This is part of Ranelagh's conscious decision to make Every Child A Theatre Goer.

The School Council, governors and the Chair of Trustees for TTLT had a sneaky peek inside the new building before the holidays. The rooms are formed, the electrics are in and the lift shaft is in place.

Richard Trew, one of the architects, explained the reasons behind the decisions for the layout of the build. Abdal was able to use the plans to find out where he was standing.

"We're so excited," stated Ruth form Year 6 and Chair of School Council. Ruth's recount can be seen on Ranelagh's website, under News. To see more photographs and the plans of the build, go to Information on the website and click on New Build - Updates.

There will be a grand opening in the very near future; Ranelagh is hoping to open the doors of the new build to parents by the end of March 2020.
