Autumn Term

27th November 2020

ODD SOCKS DAY

On Monday 16th November, children came into school wearing their odd socks to mark the beginning of anti-bullying week. One of the many reasons why Ranelagh primary and nursery school is remarkable is the diversity of our community. This diversity allows for new ideas, views, and practices to stimulate and inspire us. It allows us to recognise the common values that are in all of us - kindness and acceptance of all. Despite being different, our children are united: accepting everyone for who they are and having the strength to say no to bullying.

Incredible Teachers and Teaching Assistants in incredible Times

Last week, I was walking through the Year 1 playground at home time and a parent stopped me and said, 'Thank you for keeping the school open, you're doing a wonderful job.' Now I would like to take the credit for all of this – but I can't. It is our incredible Ranelagh team who, over the last 3 months, have ensured that your children can come to school to learn and to socialise with their friends whilst the nation is in Lockdown. Like you, our teachers are parents themselves, juggling family life, work and the anxiety of their children's bubbles isolating.

It has been difficult at times and the lines of communication have changed- the way that we speak to each other whilst wearing masks, having to email and phone another person rather than speaking to the teacher directly. I hope the phone calls from your child's teacher which you have received or will receive over the coming week has helped and made you realise what an exceptional school your child attends. This would be impossible without Ranelagh's amazing Teachers and Teaching Assistants. On behalf of all the parents, I want to say a huge thankyou to all our staff for all that you have done and all you continue to do to make sure that the children of Ranelagh can 'Be the best that they can be' – even during Lockdown.

It goes without saying that we are extremely grateful for all your support and patience during these times. Thank you.
