Going the Extra Mile- Mini Marathon Triumph!

On Saturday 25th April, Ranelagh families met up in the shadow of Big Ben to race in the TCS Mini Marathon. The children were guided by ex students- Leony, Romilly and Luana, into the starting pen to begin the warm-up. They were taken to the top of St James's Park, near Horse Guards parade, led to the start and then they were off, cheered on by roaring crowds. A huge thanks to Mr Jordan, Miss Birte and Miss Monya who tried unsuccessfully to keep up with the children. We met with the KS1 marathon runners in the afternoon, a huge thank you should go to Lena's dad and Nura's mum, who, alongside a very slow Miss Welburn (who had walked the morning one too!) and Mrs Sheikh helped keep the children running past Buckingham Palace and down the mall, the same route where Sabastian Sawe would break the marathon record the very next day.

Marathon Milestone for Mr. Murdoch!

A huge congratulations to our very own Mr. Murdoch, who successfully tackled and completed the London Marathon recently! To train for and finish a 26.2-mile course is an incredible achievement that requires months of dedication, grit, and stamina. The entire Ranelagh community is incredibly proud of your fantastic success. If you see Mr. Murdoch around the school, please make sure to give him a massive high-five. 🏆 Well done, Mr. Murdoch!

The Big Boogie- A Huge Success!

Our school hall was transformed into the ultimate party zone this week as we hosted the first whole school disco. Organised by the School Council, the atmosphere was electric from the very first song, with the dance floor staying packed as the children showcased their most impressive moves to a soundtrack of all-time favourite hits. The night was more than just fun, we also managed to raise a fantastic amount of money. A significant portion of these funds will be donated directly to Young Minds. This wonderful charity provides essential support for young people's mental health, which is a cause very close to our school's heart. Thank you to everyone for your incredible support in making this unforgettable evening both a celebration and a meaningful way to give back to others.
