niños fantásticos

12 Year 6 children had the privilege of brushing up on their Spanish last week. They travelled to Almería to the seaside town of Roquetas de Mar .They visited our sister school- Las Salinas and met up with their buddies. Ranelagh children supported the Spanish children during their English lessons and the Spanish children helped our children with Spanish phrases. The children also had the opportunity to taste the local delicacies of churros and chocolate and eat fresh olive oil spread on crunchy Spanish bread. The children had a day of sightseeing around the historical town of Almería where they visited Almería cathedral and climbed the top of a mountain to St Christopher monument which overlooked Alcazaba of Almería- a Moorish fortress.

The children thoroughly enjoyed their experience especially swimming in the hotel pool and in the beautiful blue Mediterranean Sea. "I am so lucky to have been chosen - it was great talking to the Spanish children and making new friends." said Nouriel.

The chef at the hotel came over to our dining table on the last morning, waved his hands towards the children and said enthusiastically, "Ninos fantastico!"

Mrs Barzoi, Ranelagh's Spanish leader, said she had never been prouder. "Spanish is taught from reception at Ranelagh and is used in every subject. To see the children confidently talking in Spanish and being understood is an amazing nod to the brilliant teaching of Foreign Languages in our school." The Spanish children will be visiting Ranelagh in October and we can't wait to return.
