Ranelagh's Passion For Poetry and the Written Word

Ranelagh pupils have a passion for composition, demonstrated by their love of writing both in and outside of the classroom. Shree, a pupil in Year 3, put pen to paper last term and entered the Young Writers poetry competition, crafting a beautiful and poignant piece titled 'Fire and Water.' His poem was recognised for its brilliance and awarded with a place in the Young Writers Anthology, which will be published this term.

Young Writers is an organisation that works with schools, parents and young writers across the world and has been doing so successfully for over two decades. Their aim is to promote a love of poetry and creative writing by running annual competitions aimed at celebrating young writers and young voices. Shree's poem was submitted for entry into this year's poetry competition, titled 'Rhymecraft,' and was selected for publication; an amazing and prestigious accomplishment. Unbeknownst to him at the time, he was presented with a certificate in our Friday assembly, declaring him the winner of the competition. Shree was delighted with the award and could barely contain his excitement, declaring "I never knew I was going to win! Yes! This is fantastic." He read his poem out to the whole school who thundered with applause. Look out for Shree's poem in 'Rhymecraft – East London' scheduled for publication on the 28th of February, 2018.

Sharing Our Remarkable Learning

One of Ranelagh's many strengths is that we offer a broad and balanced curriculum, history and geography skills are learned though drama, music, art and dance. This was demonstrated in 6T8's Sharing Assembly this week. The whole class performed a musical piece on the instruments they are learning and showed their knowledge of the Shang Dynasty through gymnastics. 5T6 will be sharing their learning on Thursday 25th. Why don't you come along.

Well Done!

Every week we will print the names of those children who have achieved in either their work or their good conduct and behaviour around the school. If your child is awarded a certificate this Friday look out for their names in the newsletter next week.
