Spring Term S.V0107

Friday 1st March 2019

Dear Parents and Carers

Welcome back to the second half of the spring holiday and with such glorious sunshine!

I'm sure you will have noticed that the building work has started again - with a newly positioned main gate, new access to the toilets for EYFS and not forgetting the long awaited canopies- providing shelter outside.

I'm sure that you have already met our new Office Staff- Mr Thomas Holdroyd, Mrs Lepa Rahman and Ms Asma Begum. Please do not hesitate to speak to them if you have any questions and I know you will welcome them to the Ranelagh team.

Unfortunately, I must inform you that John Bemister, our Site Supervisor for 25 years, will be retiring today. He has been part of many changes to the school building and grounds and we will all miss his knowledge about the workings of this beautiful school building. Good luck John and enjoy your time writing your next novel.

I look forward to many events this term commencing with reading week - a chance for you to pop into school to listen to your child read and see the learning happening in the classroom. We will also have an end of term poetry performance and, of course, the Easter Egg hunt in the last week.

Thank you for your on-going support and working in partnership. You will be able to read about the amazing progress of your child in the yearly written report which will come home with the children at the end of term.

Mrs Lawrenson
