Summer Term S.V01130

Friday 24th May 2019

Bienvenido a nuestros fabulosos visitantes.

This week we enjoyed a visit from our sister-school, Ciep Las Salinas. Arriving on Tuesday, they were greeted by a festoon of British and Spanish flags in our whole school assembly demonstrating our long-term friendship. Spanish, as chosen by the Ranelagh parents, is the Foreign Language we study from Nursery to Year 6. Year 1 children sang Spanish songs and our visitors were amazed. The Spanish children teamed up with buddies from Ranelagh and they took them on a visit to the Olympic Park and for a cruise down the River Thames. The visitors ventured to our local street with the finest restaurants- Green Street, organised by Mrs Aisha Sheikh.

“It is such an important time in our calendar,” said Jose, Head of the Bi-lingual department, “it is extremely important that we continue this wonderful partnership.”

Good Luck Mrs Ali

We wish to send our very good wishes to Ms Ali, who is leaving to have her baby. We hope to see Mrs Ali and the baby very soon. 3M7 will have Mrs Zaman, who the children all know, as their teacher for the last term.
