New Government Announcement This Evening

You may already have heard that the Prime Minister has just announced new measures and that schools in England will be closed at the end of this week for all pupils, with the exception of the children of key workers and also those who are most vulnerable. We currently do not yet fully understand the actual implications of this announcement and how this will work but over the next few days we will be working with the authorities to understand the full impact. We will then be able to advise you further.

In the meantime please ensure that you look after yourselves and continue to follow the advice of Public Health England <https://www.gov.uk/government/topical-events/coronavirus-covid-19-uk-government-response>.

Best Wishes,
